

Student Disciplinary Process

Adjudication Flow Chart

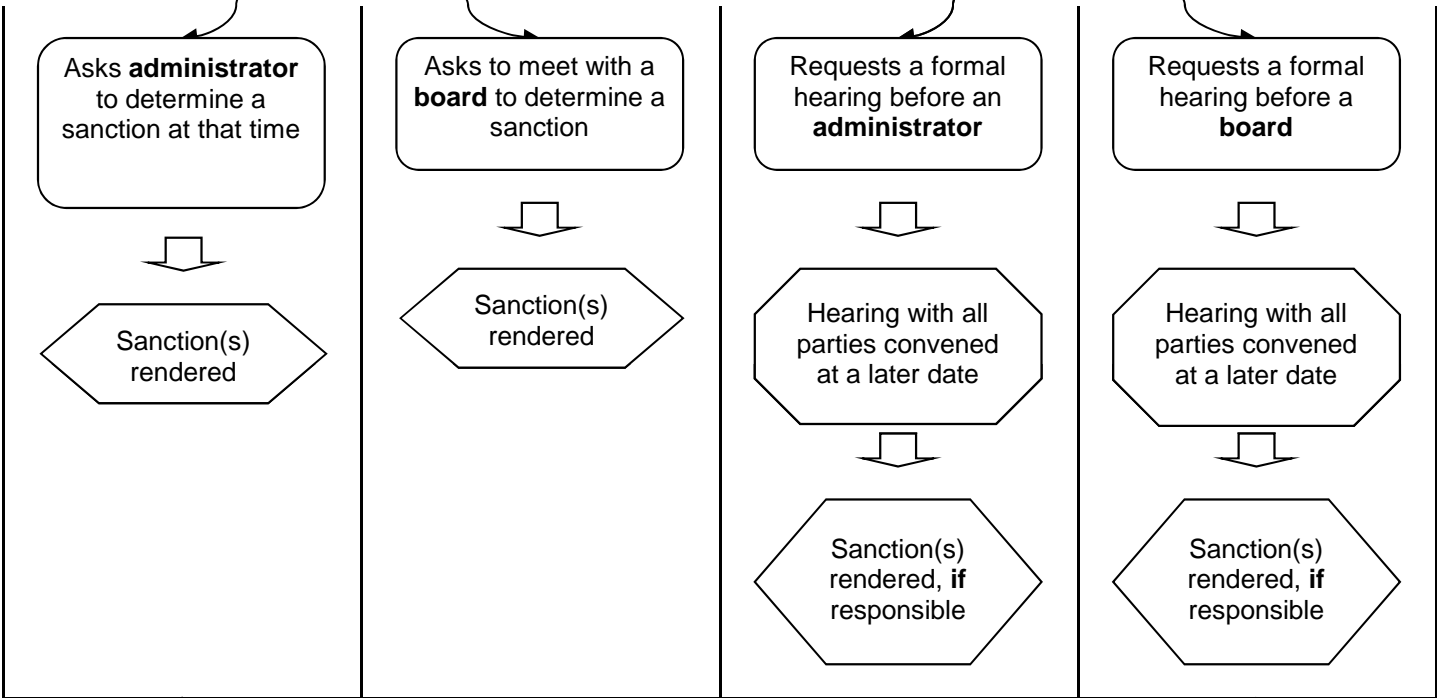

Disciplinary Complaint is Submitted

Respondent meets with an administrator to:
 - learn about his/her rights and responsibilities, and
 - choose from the following options

Respondent accepts responsibility

Respondent denies responsibility

Appeal Options

Respondents may appeal the finding of responsibility and/or the sanction.
The Complainant and Respondent may appeal that there was a conflict of interest or that proper procedures were not followed.
 All initial appeals go to the University Student Appeals Board. Suspension or Dismissal sanctions may also be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Services.
